WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 20 Issue 12 Published Monthly Dec 2015/Jan 2016

December has been a very busy month, as can be seen by all the pictures in this issue. To begin with we had the final of the King's College Student Bar Association Moot which we sponsored. It was very enjoyable and very impressive advocacy from all the finalists.

This was followed by our book launch of Planning Law and Practice and Planning Enforcement. David Travers QC was the lead author on both books and treated everyone to a very entertaining speech.

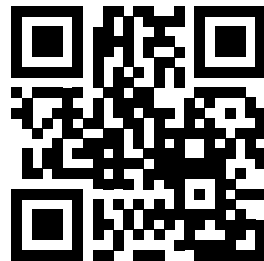

Finally we had the Inner Temple Book Prize, for which we are a sponsor. It was won this year by Alan Paterson for his book Final Judgement. We were honoured to have HRH Princess Anne to present the prizes and chat with everyone afterwards.

Early in January we will be attending the American Association of Law Schools in New York. We would hope to see many of our North American customers there.

For when you need information now

2015 was another eventful and exciting year in the Wildy eBook world. The highlights have been –

- The launch of the LexisNote looseleaves from LexisNexis.
- The ongoing success of the Thomson Reuters ProView platform.
- The first Wildy Simmonds & Hill titles to be released as eBooks.
- The additions of such publishers as Bloomsbury Professional and Springer Verlag to our eBook range.

2016 will be interesting also. In the general book market, and especially in America, there is no longer the exponential growth in eBook sales and in some markets like fiction the sales have plateaued. However the professional market started a lot later than the general markets and Apps like ProView and LexisNote are starting to gather really strong momentum. We are also seeing movement away from the Book & eBook pack as people are realising that, for titles like Archbold and the Sentencing Referencer, there is no longer a need to have a hard copy.

With the rush of titles being published in November and December it is easy to miss some of the important eBooks that you may require. So, here is a run- down of the key eBooks from the last couple of months.

- Chitty On Contracts 32nd ed
- The Conveyancing Handbook 22nd ed
- Thomas' Sentencing Referencer 2016
- Archbold: Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice 2016
- Crown Court Index 2016
- Hudson's Building and Engineering Contracts 13th ed
- Russell on Arbitration 24th ed
- Scrutton on Charterparties and Bills of Lading 23rd ed
- Enforcement of Consumer Rights & Protections
- Jowitt's Dictionary of English Law 4th ed
- The Interpretation of Contracts 6th ed
- Paterson's Licensing Acts 2016
- Anthony and Berryman's Magistrates Court Guide: 2016
- Cook on Costs 2016
- Wilkinson's Road Traffic Offences 27th ed
- European State Aid Law and Policy 3rd ed
- Butterworths Commercial and Consumer Law Handbook 8th ed
- Tolley's Health and Safety at Work Handbook 2016
- The Hamlyn Lectures 2014: UK, EU and Global Administrative Law: Foundations and Challenges

More details about these titles can be found on our website and book & packs are also available for the majority of them.

BOOKS PUBLISHED IN 2015 FROM WILDY, SIMMONDS & HILL

NATURAL LAW AND COMPARATIVE LAW

Russell Wilcox and Anthony Carty (editors)

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 12

Price:	£65.00
ISBN:	9780854901548
Extent:	414 pp
Binding:	Hardback

It has been a major contention of classical natural law theory that the arguments it makes, because rooted in a robust account of human nature, are of universal applicability. A somewhat less well explored dimension is the extent to which it can admit of, and indeed support, the great variations in human cultures, life-ways and patterns of social ordering. Despite this fact, however, there is much to suggest that it is possessed of theoretical resources uniquely well adapted to maintaining a balance between unity and diversity in each of these areas. In consequence, although the disciplines of natural law and comparative law have long tended to be treated as essentially immiscible, there is much to suggest that this may not be the whole story and that an exploration of how they can be brought together holds out the promise of making real theoretical advances in each. It is in this spirit that the present volume collects together essays from a variety of scholars with interests in various aspects of classical natural law theory and comparative legal studies as a way of beginning what the editors hope will become a fruitful and, in time, much wider conversation.

THE OLD MUNSTER CIRCUIT

Maurice Healy

Price: £14.95
ISBN: 9780854901579
Extent: 280 pp
Binding: Paperback

The Old Munster Circuit, the legal memoirs of Maurice Healy, was first published in 1939 by Michael Joseph, and has reappeared in several editions over the last 75 years. It has been out of print in recent times and much sought after. These amusing memoirs affectionately describe the workings and people of the Munster Circuit, where Healy practised from 1910 to 1914. Healy goes to some length in trying to describe and explain his countrymen to an English audience:

“The difference of atmosphere between the two countries was exemplified in a case of my father’s which came to be tried in London before Mr Justice Darling. The point at issue was the identity of a valuable picture, and hosts of witnesses, many of them humble Irish folk, were examined on either side. One of these Irishmen who had tuned his harp to the romantic air of his own County Court was a shock to a judge of pedestrian imagination. Darling at last turned to him sternly and said ‘Tell me, in your country, what happens to a witness who does not tell the truth?’ ‘Begor, me Lord,’ replied the Irishman, with a candour that disarmed all criticism, ‘I think his side usually wins.’”

THE INTERACTION OF LEGAL SYSTEMS Post-Soviet Approaches

William E. Butler and Oleksiy V. Kresin (editors)

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 13

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901616
Extent: 538 pp
Binding: Hardback

Thirty-four comparatists from Ukraine, Belarus, Moldova, Russia, and the United States address the philosophy and methodology of analyzing the interaction of national legal systems, the theory of such interaction, the interaction of national legal systems in practice, the interaction of international law, integration law, and national law, and the interaction of secular and religious law. REFLECTIONS ON THE SUPREME COURT OF GHANA

Samuel Kofi Date-Bah

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 14

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901562
Extent: 290 pp
Binding: Hardback

The book is intended to be a contribution to comparative knowledge on what a final and constitutional court's role and significance are to governance in a developing country. It provides a recently retired judge's insights into the substantive work and function of the Supreme Court in Ghanaian society and Ghana's legal and political system.

The book throws light on the role played by the Supreme Court in the development of Ghanaian law and the laying of the foundation for Ghana's constitutional democracy. The establishment of a constitutional democracy in Ghana has been an important factor in the nation's development and the Supreme Court has had an important role to play in this process. It will also be invaluable to both academic and practising lawyers, as well as at non-lawyers interested in the function and operations of the Supreme Court. The study of the Supreme Courts of emerging democracies should be given some emphasis in comparative law. It is hoped that the material contained in this book will contribute to the facilitation of such emphasis.

Justice Date-Bah was a member of the Supreme Court of Ghana from 2003 to 2013. Prior to that he was a Special Adviser (Legal) at the Commonwealth Secretariat in London. He had earlier been a law Professor at the Universities of Ghana, Nairobi and Calabar (Nigeria), with visiting appointments at Lincoln College, Oxford and the Yale Law School. He was educated at the University of Ghana, the Yale Law School and the London School of Economics. He was elected a Fellow of the Ghana Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2000. He is also a member of the International Academy of Commercial and Consumer Law and was a member of the UNIDROIT Working Group which formulated the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts. He has published extensively on Ghanaian law and international commercial law. Since retiring from the bench, he has continued to be Chairman of the Ghana Law Reform Commission, the Council of the University of Ghana and the Data Protection Commission of Ghana.

MANUFACTURED OBSCURITY
The Postcolonial Erasure of Suzerainty and the Changing Legal Status of Tibet

Amy Kellam

Law in East Asia Series

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901692
Extent: 276 pp
Binding: Hardback

In 1951 Tibet was incorporated into the People's Republic of China by the Seventeen Point Agreement. Today the legal status of Tibet remains a matter of contention between the PRC and the Tibetan-Government-in-Exile. Both rely upon on legally ambiguous British engineered treaties to make their case. The inconsistent representation of Tibet's status in treaties is not, however, a reflection of the ambiguity of Tibet's status itself; it is a reflection of the ambiguity of such treaties in the context of the positivist-colonial encounter.

Drawing upon British Government archives, this book examines the issue: to what extent, in what ways, and with what effects has the British imperial legacy in the region converged with Chinese formulations of law and governance in Tibet to prejudice understanding of Tibet's legal status. This addresses a significant gap in international legal literature, which seldom discusses Tibet outside of considerations of minority rights within the PRC.

This book argues that an assessment of imperialism and its relationship with nineteenth century international law is essential to explaining the events of 1951, but it is only through a reassessment of the postcolonial that the absence of discussion of Tibet's status in international legal discourse can be explained. The history of Tibet's legal status highlights contradictions embedded within modernity and exposes the mythological foundations of the modern secular state's narrative of progress.

Manufactured Obscurity concludes that the much emphasised clash between Western and East Asian values in the field of international law in truth operates along a much narrower divide than might be presumed. This is best assessed as a reflection of the contradictions inherent to the postcolonial within international law; involving both a pushing away of the imperialistic past and a reaffirmation of its continuity in order that modern commitments to the rule of law retain value.

LAW OF INSOLVENT PARTNERSHIPS AND LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIPS

Elspeth Berry
Rebecca Parry

Price: £145.00
ISBN: 9780854901609
Extent: 745 pp
Binding: Hardback

Although insolvency law and partnership/LLP law are both well-established areas of legal practice in their own right, this is the only text which comprehensively explains and analyses insolvency law as it applies to all three types of business partnership available under English law; general partnerships, limited partnerships and LLPs.

Law of Insolvent Partnerships and Limited Liability Partnerships explains the legal framework applicable to insolvent partnerships and LLPs: principally the Insolvent Partnerships Order 1994 and the LLP Regulations 2001 applying and modifying parts of the Insolvency Act 1986, the Companies Act 2006 and the Insolvency Rules. It includes detailed discussion of potential rescue procedures (compositions and arrangements, voluntary arrangements and administration), as well as the various types of receivership (including agricultural receiverships). It then explains and analyses the four possible partnership liquidation procedures (with or without concurrent petitions against partners), the voluntary and compulsory liquidation of LLPs, and the joint bankruptcy procedure which is unique to partnerships. Finally it examines the options for insolvency litigation and disqualification.

Elspeth Berry is a non-practising solicitor, member of the Association of Partnership Practitioners and Reader in Law at Nottingham Law School, with over twenty years' experience in researching and publishing in partnership and LLP law and teaching undergraduate and postgraduate students the law of business organisations and other commercial and international subjects. She is the author of Partnership and LLP Law (Wildy, Simmonds & Hill Publishing).

Rebecca Parry is Professor at Nottingham Trent University since 2007, experienced PhD supervisor and visiting lecturer and has been a researcher at a number of European institutions. Her main research interests lie in the area of international and comparative insolvency law. She has interests in related areas of company law, notably directors' duties and director disqualification. Rebecca is the author of a number of titles including Transaction Avoidance in Insolvencies, 2nd edition (Oxford University Press) and Corporate Rescue (Sweet & Maxwell).

TRIALS & TRIBULATIONS
Uncommon Tales of the Common Law

James Wilson

Price: £14.99
ISBN: 9780854901715
Extent: 238 pp
Binding: Hardback

Why are court cases such a fertile source for writers of fiction and non-fiction alike? For a start, they usually have a beginning, middle and end; and a ready cast of characters playing defined roles. They always have an inherent crisis to be resolved. But they also contain a great deal of human interest: behind the theatrics and etiquette of the courtroom, and the often arcane language and concepts of the law, there are real people seeking answers to real-life problems. The common law is sometimes made by faceless corporations, or rich and powerful individuals seeking to preserve their money or reputation. Just as often, however, it is made by ordinary people who are not seeking fame or wealth, but who are simply trying to right whatever they believed has been wronged.

This book is a collection of 50 stories of notable court cases spanning more than a century. There are great ethical dilemmas – the tragic case of the conjoined twins where one, but not both, could survive, or the football fan Tony Bland who was left in a persistent vegetative state after the Hillsborough Disaster, and whose family faced the tragic choice of ending treatment. There are significant legal cases such as Donoghue v Stevenson and Carlill v Carbolic Smoke Ball Company. There are also great Victorian scandals such as Oscar Wilde’s fall from high society, or the wrongful imprisonment of Captain Dreyfus. Then there are more topical cases, such as those involving religion and the law and the ‘clash of rights’ that sometimes occurs when devout people find their conscience will not allow them to act according to the law.

And then there are cases that can only be described as absurd. The writer Julie Burchill was once sued by someone who was offended by her calling him ‘ugly’. In another case, an unfortunate marital dispute required the judge to look at reams of hard-core pornography, and to try to find judicially-appropriate neutral language to describe it.

Written in an accessible style with an eye to the human as much as legal interest, the book will be of interest to lawyers and non-lawyers alike.

This book is a comprehensive and practical guide to planning enforcement. Planning enforcement is often seen as a minefield that straddles planning and criminal law. This book provides a thorough guide helpful to Local Authorities and private sector practitioners on matters ranging from the decision to issue a notice through to proceedings under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 as well as dealing with the appeal system.

Planning Enforcement sets out the very detailed technical complexities of enforcement through an easy-to-follow structure. The book draws together the statutory framework, case law and guidance. - Inquiry Procedure
- Listed Building Enforcement Notice
- Consequences of failure to comply including criminal prosecution and injunctive proceedings

AS IN MEMORY LONG

Peter Millett

Price: £25.00
ISBN: 9780854901586
Extent: 232 pp
Binding: Hardback

Widely recognised as one of the most brilliant and commercially minded judges of his generation, Peter Millett was involved in many leading cases of the day, including those arising out of the insolvency of the International Tin Council, the collapse of the Maxwell empire, and the Pinochet case, as well as cases of child custody and adoption, forgery, provocation, wrongful pregnancy, and even the Chinese system of concubinage.

As in Memory Long is a frank and revealing account of the author's life and career, punctuated throughout with his personal insights into the law and its workings through the years. As well as learning the difference between tax avoidance and tax evasion, the reader will also discover how to produce the perfect forgery or provide a company with substantial capital when you have no money, and how best to present a fallacious argument. Among the book's many anecdotes are a description of an occasion when the House of Lords managed to give judgment in the wrong case, and many examples of judicial wit at the expense of counsel and vice versa, as well as some often unintentionally hilarious cross-examinations and unexpected answers by witnesses.

The memoirs of Peter Millett are not the usual dull series of legal cases won or lost but an entertaining account of personal and professional mishaps over a lengthy and distinguished legal career which will appeal to anyone with an interest in the law and its personalities.

After coming down from Cambridge with a double First and an unfortunate start to his National Service with the RAF, Peter Millett had a distinguished career at the Bar both in England and Hong Kong. Appointed to the High Court Bench and later the Court of Appeal, he was one of the last Law Lords to sit in the House of Lords before it was replaced by the Supreme Court, and became a judge of the Court of Final Appeal of Hong Kong shortly after the handover.

DRINK AND DRUG DRIVE CASE NOTES

P M Callow

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854901685
Extent: 691pp
Binding: Hardback

Many thousands of people are prosecuted each year for drink and drug driving offences. The legislation favours the prosecution in a number of ways, for example, by requiring those under investigation to give evidence against themselves in the form of specimens of breath, blood or urine, but also affords certain safeguards to suspects. The conviction rate is exceptionally high, and the provisions have given rise to a wealth of case law.

Drink and Drug Drive Case Notes comprises summaries of the many cases on drink driving, and the fewer cases on drug driving, which have come before the High Court, the Court of Appeal, the House of Lords and, in one instance, the Supreme Court. Over six hundred judgments are summarised. Each note is presented as a short statement of the facts of the case, the question(s) put to the appeal court and an extract from the judgment. The notes are intended to provide a broad outline of the trends in the case law and as starting points for readers seeking guidance on particular issues.

This third edition includes notes of some seventy-five cases decided since the second edition was published. Themes running through the new cases include the interpretation of the provisions on reasonable cause to believe that the breath analysis device has not produced a reliable indication of the suspect's breath alcohol level, and on the application of the Criminal Procedure Rules to proceedings for drink and drug driving. At the time of publication, the so-called "statutory option" has just been removed, and section 5A of the Road Traffic Act 1988, creating new offences of driving, attempting to drive, and in charge, with a concentration of a specified controlled drug above a specified limit, has come into force. The offences are framed in much the same terms of the excess alcohol offences, but testing will be by the analysis of blood or urine only. While much of the case law concerning drink-driving will be relevant, the new provisions will no doubt give rise to their own body of case law in due time.

Drink and Drug Drive Case Notes was first published, as Drink Drive Case Notes, as a product of collaboration between Lion Laboratories – the manufacturers of much of the breath-testing equipment used in the UK and throughout the world – and the author. This expanded and updated edition of Drink and Drug Drive Case Notes will prove a useful reference for police, prosecutors, defenders and legal advisers.

"As a reference guide, this is an extremely helpful addition to a legal adviser's kitbag."

The Justices' Clerk, of the first edition

"[A]n extremely useful complement to any standard text book on drink driving matters. I would commend it not only to defence lawyers but also to those who prosecute in this area of law."
