May/June 2010

MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Adler, Michael, Administrative Justice in Context, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841139289

This book comprises a definitive collection of papers on administrative justice, written by a set of very distinguished contributors. It is divided into five parts, each of which contains articles on a particular aspect of administrative justice. The general approach of the book is socio-legal and interdisciplinary. The chapters adopt a variety of disciplinary perspectives, including those derived from political science, public policy, social policy, accounting and information technology as well as from law. Although most of the contributors are academics, some are practitioners.

Avery, Nicholas, Public-Private Partnerships: A Practical Analysis 2nd Ed, Globe Law and Business, Hardback, £135.00, ISBN: 9781905783380

This new updated second edition once again examines from a commercial perspective the major sectors where PPP structures have been successfully employed. The second edition features new chapters on social housing, waste management and the use of PPP across continental Europe. Leading practitioners analyse structures and topical developments, and address overarching issues such as the role of financing institutions and EU procurement rules.

Baker, John, Baker and Milsom's Sources of English Legal History: Private Law to 1750, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199546800

Baker and Milsom's Sources of English Legal History is the definitive source book on the development of English private law. This new edition has been comprehensively revised and updated to incorporate new sources discovered since the original publication in 1986, and to reflect developments in recent scholarship. All the sources included are translated into modern English, offering an accessible in-road to the leading primary materials for students of the history of the common law.

Banks, Robert, Banks on Sentence 5th ed, Robert Banks, Paperback, £48.00, ISBN: 9780955038631

The fifth edition provides the definitive work for determining the sentence for virtually all prosecuted offences. The offences dealt with range from smoking and parking to whole life murder and terrorism. The book also enables the reader to know what the Judge is likely to have been reading before s/he passes sentence.

Barnes, Robin, Outrageous Invasions: Celebrities' Private Lives, Media, and the Law, Oxford University Press USA, Hardback, £35.00, ISBN: 9780195392760

Celebrities are routinely subjected to stalking, harassment, invasion of privacy, and defamation. These occurrences are often violations of their constitutional rights. Professor Barnes addresses growing concerns about the widespread immunity from liability enjoyed by United States tabloid publishers.

Outrageous Invasions chronicles these experiences and the legal battles waged by celebrities in both the United States and European Union against a press corps that continuously invades their private lives.

Barton, Andrew, Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook 2010, Lexis-Nexis Butterworths, Paperback, £145.00, ISBN: 9781405749978

Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook 11th ed, 2010 provides lawyers and those involved in the insurance industry with an invaluable compilation of relevant statutes, statutory instruments, expanded FSA Handbook materials and European legislation applicable to this important area of law.

Other useful information includes the rules relating to professional indemnity of solicitors, Association of British Insurers statements, guides and codes of practice and the Motor Insurers' Bureau agreements.

Bowers, John; Davis, Carol, Termination of Employment 5th ed, Wildy, Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Paperback, £29.00, ISBN: 9780854900541

This book contains a mass of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format, providing a concise introduction to the law relating to termination of employment. Written by experienced practitioners, Termination of Employment is an invaluable aide-memoire for the busy practitioner, providing practical advice on all stages of an unfair dismissal case, from considering the merits (or demerits) of the claim to presenting the case before an employment tribunal and appealing (or defending an appeal) to the EAT. The text is supported throughout by an array of helpful checklists. Fully up-to-date, the book provides coverage of important developments in the field since the last edition, such as the 2009 ACAS Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures.

Brayne, Hugh; Carr, Helen, Law for Social Workers 11th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £28.99, ISBN: 9780199575411

Law for Social Workers has been the leading textbook in its field since the first edition published twenty years ago. Suitable for students on all social work courses, it offers a clear approach to the law which governs the profession. The eleventh edition has been restructured to provide greater coherence within parts and cross-referencing.

Brooke, Nicolas, The

French Code of Civil Procedure in English 2009, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £105.00, ISBN: 9780199737765

The French Civil Code, a descendant of the Code Napoleon, provides a detailed description of the court system, including appeals and arbitration procedures, as well as the laws governing all aspects of French life, from public elections to marriage and divorce. This 2009 edition reflects changes made to the Code since June 2007. It also includes footnotes explaining hard-to-translate terms, an extensive glossary of French legal terms, and a practical topic index.

Bryant, Robin; Bryant, Sarah, Blackstone's Student Police Officer Workbook 2010, Oxford University

Press, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780199577682
Blackstone's Student Police Officer Workbook 2010 presents a structured series of practical scenarios and exercises, designed to complement Blackstone's Student Police Officer Handbook 2010. By tackling controversial and challenging areas facing every student police officer, the authors provide a practically-based context to help improve students' understanding of the legislative and procedural content covered in the Handbook.

Calder, Norman Edited by: Imber, Colin, Islamic Jurisprudence in the Classical Era, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9780521110808
In this book, Colin Imber has put together and edited four essays by Norman Calder that have never been previously published. Typically incisive, they categorize and analyze the different genres of Islamic juristic literature that was produced between the tenth and fourteenth centuries, showing what function they served both in the preservation of Muslim legal and religious traditions and in the day-to-day lives of their communities. The essays also examine the status and role of the jurists themselves and are to be particularly welcomed for giving clear answers to the controversial questions of how far Islamic law and juristic thinking changed over the centuries, and how far it was able to adapt to new circumstances. In his introduction to the volume, Robert Gleave assesses the place and importance of Norman Calder's work in the field of Islamic legal studies. This is a groundbreaking book from one of the most important scholars of his generation.

Choudhry, Shazia; Herring, Jonathan, European Human Rights and Family Law, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781841131757

This book examines the potential impact of human rights in the way the law interacts with families. The book clarifies the different rights that family members can hold and, in particular, identifies ways in which it may be possible to deal with the clash of rights between family members that will inevitably occur. Whether this requires an abandonment of the utilitarian nature of family law, or a reworking of it, is a theme that runs throughout the book.

Clarke, Sandra; Greer, Sarah, Land Law Directions 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £29.00, ISBN: 9780199573318

Land Law: Directions provides a lively introduction to land law to make this traditionally daunting subject both clear and engaging. All the key topics covered on an undergraduate course are explained with the use of helpful learning features, coloured diagrams and photographs for a truly contemporary and student-centred approach. Combining an animated writing style with useful definitions, examples and thinking points, this book breaks down difficult concepts into manageable sections. Photographs offer an immediate visual illustration of otherwise abstract concepts, while a special chapter, ‘Completing the Puzzle’, links all the topics together and shows how they would apply to a fictional piece of land.

Clough, Jonathan, Principles of Cybercrime, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9780521728126

Whether it be fraud, child pornography, stalking, criminal copyright infringement or attacks on computers themselves, criminals will find ways to exploit new technology. The challenge for all countries is to ensure their criminal laws keep pace. The challenge is a global one, and much can be learned from the experience of other jurisdictions. Focusing on Australia, Canada, the UK and the US, this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the legal principles that apply to the prosecution of cybercrimes.

Crawford, James; Pellet, Alain; Olleson, Simon; Parlett, Dr Kate, The Law of International Responsibility, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £225.00, ISBN: 9780199296972

The volume seeks to cover the entirety of the field of international responsibility, with a particular focus on the work of the International Law Commission. It provides detailed discussion and analysis of the historically predominant topics of State responsibility, on which the ILC completed its work in 2001, and the specific subtopic of diplomatic protection, work on which was completed by the ILC in 2006.

Crossan, Sean; Wylie, Alistair B, Introductory Scots Law: Theory and Practice

2nd ed, Hodder Gibson, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780340991749

Develop the core knowledge and skills demanded in advanced law classes as part of HNC and HND courses with this second edition of Introductory Scots Law: Theory and Practice. Crystal, Michael; Phillips, Mark; Davis, Glen, Butterworths Insolvency Law Handbook 2010 12th ed, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £104.00, ISBN: 9781405749930

Butterworths Insolvency Law Handbook is the most comprehensive single collection of statutory source material and Practice Directions relating to insolvency law in England, Wales and Scotland.

The 12th edition of this trusted and popular product is fully up-to-date with all the latest insolvency law changes since publication of the previous edition, including fully consolidated versions of the Insolvency Act and Insolvency Rules.

Darian-Smith, Eve, Religion, Race, Rights: Landmarks in the History of Modern Anglo-American Law, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £17.95, ISBN: 9781841137292

This new book presents a modern history of Anglo-American law that takes into account the influence of religious, social, political and economic factors on the development of the law.

Specifically, it highlights the interconnections between three framing concepts that the author argues are a central triangular force in the development of modern western law: religion, racism, and human rights.

Davidow, Joel, Patent Related Misconduct Issues in US Litigation, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £110.00, ISBN: 9780195337204

This book is designed to serve as the first comprehensive review of conduct defenses and counterclaims, with a focus on existing case law and litigation strategies. Each section of the book is divided into sections devoted to law and strategy, with practical guidance related to handling document demands and other discovery requests, expert testimony and waiver issues. The primary market for this book is patent and antitrust litigators with a secondary market for in-house attorneys (both in the U.S. and other jurisdictions) supervising U.S.-based patent litigation. This book can also serve as a point of reference for law school students interested in patent law and antitrust litigation.

Davies, Rhianon; Rudling, David, Tolley's Value Added Tax 2010: 1st and 2nd Editions, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £152.95,

ISBN: 9780754538509

Arranged in alphabetical subject order, from Accounting Periods to Zero-Rating, Tolley's Value Added Tax brings together in-depth coverage of the UK and EC legislation, Customs material and relevant case law and tribunal decisions relevant to each topic, so the complete picture on any particular point can be easily found. Due to the ever-changing nature of VAT and your need to have access to the most up-to-date information, Tolley's Value Added Tax annual is published in two complete volumes. The price includes the 1st edition, 2010 published in April 2010 and the 2nd edition, 2010 post-Finance Act edition published in September 2010. (the 2nd edition is also available separately).

explores lawful and unlawful combatants, war crimes, prohibited weapons, the distinction between combatants and civilians, legitimate military objectives, and the protection of the environment and cultural property.

du Plessis, Paul, Borkowski's Textbook on Roman Law 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £32.99, ISBN: 9780199574889

Borkowski's Textbook on Roman Law has been written with undergraduate students firmly in mind. The book provides a clear and highly readable account of Roman private law and civil procedure, with coverage of all key topics, including the Roman legal system, and the law of persons, property, and obligations. Aiming to provide a rounded picture of the subject, the author sets the law in its social and historical context, and demonstrates the impact of Roman law on our modern legal systems.

Friston, Dr Mark, Civil Costs: Law and Practice, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £75.00, ISBN: 9781846611803

The law regulating civil costs has undergone a transformation over the past 10 years following the introduction of the CPR and the abolition of legal aid for most areas of civil litigation. The result is a complex regime of primary and secondary legislation, common law and professional conduct rules.

Civil Costs: Law and Practice is an authoritative and comprehensive new work covering all aspects of civil costs coupled with practical applications, detailed references and precedents. The work includes the text of relevant statutes, rules and cases, as well as references to many authorities difficult to find elsewhere. The result is a valuable reference work which provides a one-stop-shop for the law governing civil costs.

Funk, T. Markus, Victims' Rights and Advocacy at the International Criminal Court, Oxford University Press USA, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199737475

Victims' Rights and Advocacy at the International Criminal Court explores the unique and vital role played by victims in cases before the ICC. Author T. Markus Funk draws on his experience in international criminal law to show how the ICC has developed procedural rights and other rules for the parts of ICC proceedings devoted to victims. To set the stage for that analysis, Funk first provides a background history on the ICC's creation and on the Rome Statute's development.

Gibbons, Ellodie; Wilson, James, Leasehold Enfranchisement Explained, RICS Books, Paperback, £49.95, ISBN: 9781842195840

With a growing number of cases, and recent reforms, the area of residential leasehold enfranchisement is ever-contentious. Increasingly, leaseholders are becoming aware of their rights, and exercising them, and they need expert advice on the law and on valuation. Property professionals providing this advice need to feel confident when delivering the best service to their clients, yet much of the guidance available deals only with legal issues, often neglecting the all-important perspective of the valuer surveyor. Leasehold Enfranchisement Explained takes a refreshing approach to this critical area of valuation and the law. Highlighting the key responsibilities for each party, and timetables with which to comply, this unique guide also gives expert advice for tackling common valuation and legal issues, with fully illustrated valuation calculations and illustrations of the legal issues.

Glenn, H Patrick, Legal Traditions of the World: Sustainable Diversity in Law 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £33.99, ISBN: 9780199580804

This prize-winning work offers a major new means of conceptualizing law and legal relations across the world. National laws are placed in the broader context of major legal traditions, those of chthonic (or indigenous) law, talmudic law, civil law, islamic law, common law, hindu law and confucian law. Each tradition is examined in terms of its institutions and substantive law, its founding concepts and methods, its attitude towards the concept of change and its teaching on relations with other traditions and peoples. Legal traditions are explained in terms of multivalent and non-conflictual forms of logic and thought. This book will be invaluable to law students and lawyers engaged in comparative or transnational work, historians, social scientists, and all those interested in the legal traditions that underpin the world's major societies.

Goudappel, Flora, The Effects of EU Citizenship: Economic, Social and Political Rights in a Time of Constitutional Change, T.M.C. Asser Press, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9789067042789

The notion of citizenship has undergone significant changes over the last few years because of European Union developments. Citizens have obtained additional economic, social and political rights but have also seen privacy and other rights limited because of the European fight against terrorism. Recent developments, such as the European Constitution and the Treaty of Lisbon, have aimed to change citizenship rights for European citizens and third-country nationals in the European Union. This book explores the influence of the EU on citizenship rights, especially in view of the fight against terrorism and the constitutional changes negotiated in the last decade.

Gould, Tony; Rubenstein, Michael; Frost, Yvonne, Unfair Dismissal: A Guide to the Relevant Case Law 28th ed, LexisNexis Butterworths,

Paperback, A4, £135.00, ISBN: 9781405746878

The 28th edition of this annually updated guide gathers together all the key points from the most important unfair dismissal cases reported in Industrial Relations Law Reports, providing a valuable reference tool. It extracts those principles that are still relevant today from cases reported since 1972.

Unfair Dismissal: A Guide to the Relevant Case Law is essential for everyone involved in advising, acting or adjudicating in this area, or for anyone who needs to know the current approach of the courts to the range of problems of interpretation posed by the statute.

Harding, Paul, Mastering the ISDA Master Agreements (1992 and 2002): A Practi- cal Guide for Negotiation 3rd ed, FT Prentice Hall, Paperback, £100.00, ISBN: 9780273725206

The book is a practical guide for the negotiation of ISDA Master Agreements. The ISDA Master Agreement was published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc (“ISDA”) in January 1993 and 2002 and is the main agreement used in the over the counter global derivatives market. The book provides the many new entrants globally to derivatives documentation with a practical negotiation guide to both the 1992 and 2002 Agreements so that they can approach their work confidently without the need for constant reference to seniors or regular attendance on training courses.

CCH (Hardmans), Hardman's Tax Rates and Tables 2010-2011 1st ed, CCH Editions, Paperback, £20.30, ISBN: 9781847982797

Your reliable companion containing the raw data you can trust when calculating tax liabilities. CCH has taken great care in presenting a considerable amount of information in the most easily-accessible way. Published twice yearly, the first edition takes full account of the measures contained in the 2010 Budget, Finance Bill 2010 and the Taxation (interest and other pro) Act 2010 and Corporation Tax Act 2010. The second edition includes further information relating to new rates and allowances and other material announced in the Pre-Budget Report 2010.

Hazell, Robert, Constitutional Futures Revisited: Britain's Constitution to 2020, Palgrave Macmillan, Paperback, £22.99, ISBN: 9780230252134

The UK is going through a period of unprecedented constitutional change. There is much unfinished business, and further changes still to come. In this book, leading political scientists and lawyers forecast the impact of these changes on the UK's key institutions and the constitution as a whole. It is an indispensable guide for policy makers, lawyers and judges, the media, academics, students, and anyone interested in the future of the UK's political landscape.

Hillion, Christophe; Koutrakos, Panos, Mixed Agree- ments Revisited: The EU and its Member States in the World, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9781841139548

Mixed agreements are one of the most important and complex areas of EU external relations law. They are concluded by the Member States and the EC (and/or EU) with third countries and international organisations. This book, based on papers presented at a conference organised by the Universities of Leiden and Bristol in May 2008, will become the main point of reference in the area. It provides a comprehensive and up-to-date analysis of the legal and practical problems raised by mixed agreements. In doing so, it brings together the leading international scholars in the area of EU external relations, including two sitting Judges at the European Court of Justice and a Judge at the EFTA Court, along with legal advisors from EU institutions, Member States, and third countries.

Holland, James; Webb, Julian, Learning Legal Rules: A Students Guide to Legal Method and Reasoning 7th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £21.99, ISBN: 9780199557745

The book explains how to uncover and exploit the mysteries of legal materials. This is then used to draw the student into the techniques of legal analysis and argument and the operation of precedent and statutory interpretation. Throughout the book the authors also examine the importance of human rights and the permeating influence of EC.

Jaffer, Sohail, Islamic Investment Banking: Emerging Trends, Developments and Opportunities, Euromoney Institutional Investor, Paperback, £175.00, ISBN: 9781843746607

This new Euromoney Books title has 38 chapters covering: developments of capital markets in Malaysia and the GCC, Wealth Management, untapped potential for expansion in Europe - especially the UK, France and Luxembourg - as well as new risk management tools, the revival of Sukuk and its potential in secular markets such as Turkey and France. These new trends have been analysed and developed by eminent market practitioners who have shared their knowledge and expertise, making this book the ineluctable reference in the field of Islamic Investment Banking.

Jones, Christopher, EU Energy Law Volume 1: The Internal Energy Market - The Third Liberalisation Package 3rd ed, Claeys & Casteels, Hardback, £240.00, ISBN: 9789077644119

The first and second editions of this book established themselves as the authoritative work on the EU's liberalized gas and electricity market. With the entry into force of the third liberalization Package and the many, highly complex changes to the way that energy companies will have to do business in Europe from 2010 onwards; this new edition makes essential reading for all those affected by these major changes.

Kurkela, Matti, Due Process in International Com-

Commercial Arbitration 2nd ed, Oceana Publications, Hardback, £105.00, ISBN: 9780195377132

This is the first publication to identify a universal procedural code for international commercial arbitration. This informative and well-argued discussion of a uniform code for due process is a useful aid for both practitioners and scholars. More than just a useful desk reference, this publication uncovers a unifying arbitration principle in light of the diversity of national traditions. The author Matti S. Kurkela demonstrates how this unifying principle might establish a new standard procedure in arbitration law.

Kwiatkowska, Barbara, Decisions of the World Court Relevant to the UN Conven- tion on the Law of the Sea: A Reference Guide 2nd ed, Brill Academic Publishers, Hardback, £115.00, ISBN: 9789004184299

This pioneering publication provides a Reference Guide to the significant contributions of decisions of the World Court, as the principal judicial organ of the United Nations and the world's most senior Court with the broadest material jurisdiction, to the development of the law of the sea as a part of the global system of peace and security.

Laird, Siobhan, Practical Social Work Law: Analysing Court Cases and Inquiries, Pearson Education Ltd, Paperback, £26.99, ISBN: 9781405847391

Practical Social Work Law: Analysing Court Cases and Inquiries presents legal issues associated with social work in an accessible format. It approaches the law in a way that is less daunting and more engaging through case rather than statute law, and examines the stories of real people and the legal and ethical dilemmas practitioners will face. The text explores basic principles regarding the operation of the law and the lessons for good practice, in addition to exploring relevant statute law.

Landmark cases, cases drawn from the lower courts, tribunals, and ombudsman's decisions are included throughout presenting an accessible account of the application of the law.

Martha, Rutsel Silvestre J, Legal Foundations of INTERPOL, Hart Publishing,

Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781849460408

This is a study of the legal aspects of the birth and development of an international organization, using the example of INTERPOL as a detailed case study. It is not a constitutional manual for INTERPOL, but an organisational study, and does not seek to be exhaustive in terms of its description of INTERPOL's operations. Its main focus is the examination of the question whether an international organisation, in this case INTERPOL, can be created without a solemn and formally celebrated treaty. At the same time the book sets out the legal foundations for extra-judicial international police enforcement cooperation and explains the creation, structure and operation of INTERPOL, the organisation that promotes that cooperation. For practitioners who, for whatever reason, have to deal with INTERPOL, it provides a much-needed explanation of the legal foundations of the Organisation, its legal status and some basic guidance on its operations. It also includes information relevant for lawyers litigating issues with INTERPOL about how their clients can challenge the way the Organisation has processed information concerning them, or has alerted police forces worldwide about them.

source of evidence worldwide. It affects every aspect of law, criminal and civil, and with the internet, is even more important for all lawyers to understand and apply to daily practice. Electronic Evidence Second edition provides you with essential guidance on how to understand electronic evidence and how to use this successfully in litigation and other means of dispute resolution. This title brings together all the issues relating to disclosure, procedure and admissibility of electronic evidence as well as comprehensive coverage of jurisdictions including Australia, Canada, the UK, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Singapore, South Africa and the USA.

McEldowney, John; McEl-

downey, Sharron, Environmental Law, Pearson Education Ltd, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9781405840507

Environmental Law is an exciting new textbook that explores all areas of the law relating to the environment in context. Legal principles and key cases are discussed alongside historical, social and economic influences, an approach which is particularly important at a time when environmental issues are making their way up the global political agenda. Key areas of development such as human rights and carbon trading are included alongside more traditional areas of environmental law such as planning and air pollution. A number of in-chapter features encourage critical thinking and aid understanding.

Mcleod, Ian, Palgrave Law

Masters: Legal Theory 5th ed, Palgrave Macmillan, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9780230247833

Why do some rules have the status of law while others do not? Is law simply a matter of rules anyway? What is justice? This updated new edition of Legal Theory asks questions such as these, discusses topical issues such as assisted suicide, and explains some of the answers which legal theorists have given from Ancient Greece to the present day.

Mills, Oliver, Biotechnological Inventions: Moral Restraints and Patent Law 2nd ed, Ashgate Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9780754677741
This fully revised and updated book examines the role of moral considerations in the patent system and asks why in the context of biotechnological inventions, morality has become an important issue. It takes account of recent developments, including reference to the situation in Australia. By examining such specific recent cases, the author elucidates the moral concerns associated with modern biotechnology, thus providing an important contribution to the debate and a valuable resource for all those working in this exciting field.

Mitchell, Charles, Hayton & Mitchell Commentary, Materials and Cases on the Law of Trusts and Equitable Remedies 13th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £34.95, ISBN: 9781847037305 cases are provided.

Murphy, John F., Evolving Dimensions of International Law: Hard Choices for the World Community, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £17.99, ISBN: 9780521709231

This book examines recent developments in sources of public international law, such as treaties and custom operating among nations in their mutual relations, as well as developments in some of the primary rules of law international institutions created by these processes.

Murray, Andrew, Information Technology Law: The Law and Society, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £34.99, ISBN: 9780199548422

This ground-breaking new work is the first textbook to systematically examine how the law and legal process of the UK interacts with the modern 'information society' and the fast-moving process of digitisation. It examines the challenges that this fast pace of change brings to the established legal order, which was developed to meet the needs of a traditional physical society.

Oats, Lynne; Tuck, Paul, Accounting Principles

for Tax Purposes 4th ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781847663801

Accounting Principles for Tax Purposes bridges the gap between tax and accountancy and is the only work of reference that will guide you through the complex maze of accounting principles providing you with the key answers to interpreting accounts for tax and other purposes. This is a practical work that is recognised in the tax profession as the bible for non-accounting professionals who have to use accounts in their work. This new edition has been completely updated to examine recent developments affecting the interface between accounting and tax rules and regulations.

Orucu, Esin, Mixed Legal Systems at New Frontiers, Wildy, Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780854900701

The aim of this volume is to provide the reader with original views on and insight into mixed legal systems in general, and some mixed legal systems and ongoing mixes in particular. The hope is that the analyses to be found in the eleven contributions will be helpful for scholars, students and practitioners who have a general interest in comparative law and a special interest in mixed legal systems, and provide inspiration to pursue further inquiries.

Owen, Lynette, Selling Rights 6th ed, Routledge, Paperback, £45.00, ISBN: 9780415496926
Selling Rights is a practical and accessible guide to all aspects of selling rights and co-publications throughout the world. The sixth edition of this authoritative e handbook has been updated to include the changes which have taken place in technology, sales and distribution, and legislation in the United Kingdom and overseas, especially relating to web 2.0. Selling Rights covers the full range of potential rights, from English-language territorial rights, book club and paperback sales through to serial rights, translation rights, dramatization and documentary rights, and electronic publishing and multimedia.

Packard, Ashley, Digital Media Law, Wiley-Blackwell, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781405181693, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN:

In a world where anyone can become a media producer, everyone should know something about media law – both to protect their own rights and to avoid violating the rights of others. Digital Media Law is the first media law text to respond to digitalization and globalization--the two most significant agents of change in the 21st century.

Pearl, Patricia; Goodman, Andrew, Small Claims Procedure in the County Court: A Practical Guide to Mediation and Litigation 5th ed, Wildy, Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9780854900527

Wildy's Book of the Month - May 2010

This book will be shipped post free in the UK until the end of July 2010

Legal professionals rarely receive any formal training or guidance on how to run a small claims case in the county court, while litigants in person, (the general public), often have to conduct such cases without legal representation. A lack of understanding of the rules frequently leads to confusion and mistakes, which in turn adds to expense and causes delay. The fifth edition of this popular title (formerly entitled Small Claims Procedure: A Practical Guide) will prove invaluable for busy practitioners and litigants in person alike, equipping them with the latest know-how on avoiding errors and making the most of the procedures that are available. Updating material in this edition has been significant; of particular importance are the clarified rules on the date upon which court proceedings are served and the material which must be included in letters before action and other pre-action steps. Finally, the book has been made even more user friendly by improved cross-referencing, handy tables and an extensive glossary.

Peerenboom, Randall, Judicial Independence in China: Lessons for Global Rule of Law Promotion, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9780521137348

This volume challenges the conventional wisdom about judicial independence in China and its relationship to economic growth, rule of law, human rights protection, and democracy. The volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach that places China's judicial reforms and the struggle to enhance the professionalism, authority, and independence of the judiciary within a broader comparative and developmental framework.

Posner, Richard A., How Judges Think, Paperback, £14.95, ISBN: 9780674048065

A distinguished and experienced appellate court judge,

Richard A. Posner offers in this new book a unique and, to orthodox legal thinkers, a startling perspective on how judges and justices decide cases.

Pritchard, John, UK Legal Experts 2010, Legalease, Paperback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781906854164

as advertising, agriculture, clinical negligence, commercial litigation, defamation, environment, mergers and acquisitions, shipping and sports law.

Reilly, David J., Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £110.00, ISBN: 9789041132666

In recognition of the growing importance of employee benefits and executive compensation issues, the Centre for Labour and Employment Law at New York University School of Law dedicated New York University's 59th Annual Conference on Labour to an in-depth examination of these topics. This volume of the proceedings of the 2006 conference contains papers presented at that meeting, all here updated to reflect recent developments. It also includes contributions from other practitioners and academics with extensive knowledge and experience in this specialized field of labour and employment law.

Ryan, Michael H, EU Regulatory Framework for Electronic Communications Handbook 2010, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £80.00, ISBN: 9781847665454

Regulation of electronic communications in the 27 EU Member States is increasingly driven by European legislation. This title collects the key European legislation and other instruments pertinent to the electronic communications sector and in some cases is annotated by Michael Ryan and his colleagues. It is the only place where all the legislation is consolidated.

Sealy, Len and Milman, David, Sealy & Milman: Annotated Guide to the Insolvency Legislation 2010: 13th ed: Volumes 1 & 2, Paperback, Sweet & Maxwell, £210.00, ISBN: 9780414043749 Vol 1 only £160.00, ISBN: 9780414043725, Vol 2 only £130.00, ISBN: 9780414043732

The Insolvency Service in November 2009 published the draft Insolvency (Amendment) Rules 2010 which are expected to come into force with effect from 6th April 2010. The Legislative Reform (Insolvency) (Miscellaneous Provisions) Order 2010 which has accompanied the Amendment Rules, and is required to make changes to the Insolvency Act to permit the Rules modernisation initiatives is also due into force on 6th April 2010.

Sealy & Milmanso as to be one of the first to market with the new changes and to meet customer need for currency, has been brought forward and publication is in May 2010, rather than its traditional publication date of October 2010 when the legislation will already have been in force for six months.

Semple, Kirsty, The ICSA Charities Handbook, ICSA Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781860724046

Charities are subject to ever increasing regulation and it is essential that those involved in the management of organisations in the sector understand and comply with their obligations. The ICSA Charities Handbook provides clear and practical guidance on the legal aspects of running a charity and will be of real value to company secretaries in public practice, accountants and lawyers, and also those working within charitable organisations.

Snape, John; Watt, Gary, How to Moot: A Student Guide to Mooting 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £18.99, ISBN: 9780199571673

How to Moot is essential reading for student mooters at all levels. Written by lecturers with many years' experience of supporting students and judging at internal and national mooting competitions, you can be sure that this book contains everything you need to know about preparing for and participating in moots, plus numerous tips to help you stand out from the crowd. The book is written in a uniquely user-friendly style:

it is divided into 100 Q&As and structured in short, accessible chapters, so you can find what you need quickly and easily. Chapter summaries allow you to check you have covered the key points in each area, and diagrams clearly set out the procedural aspects of mooting.

Sornarajah, M., The International Law on Foreign Investment 3rd ed, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £40.00, ISBN: 9780521747653

Given recent seismic upheavals in the world's money markets, an updated edition of an authoritative, reliable textbook on the international law of foreign investment has rarely been so timely. Sornarajah's classic text surveys how international law has developed to protect foreign investments by multinational actors and to control any misconduct on their part. It analyses treaty-based methods, examining the effectiveness of bilateral and regional investment treaties.

Standley, Kate, Palgrave Law Masters: Family Law 7th ed, Palgrave Macmillan, Paperback, £23.99, ISBN: 9780230251595

This text provides a clear, comprehensive and engaging account of this rapidly developing subject. In addition to dealing with the intricacies of statute and case law, it deals with the wider social and policy issues, current family law debates and proposals for reform. It includes up-to-date coverage of the latest major developments.

Steele, Jenny, Tort Law: Text, Cases and Materials 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £36.99, ISBN:

Tort Law: Text, Cases, and Materials 2nd ed offers a clear, thorough, and engaging guide to tort law. The author's clarity of expression enables the reader to gain a secure understanding of the fundamental principles of the subject, whilst also facilitating an appreciation of the more complex tensions and debates surrounding the contemporary law of tort. This stimulating text presents a wide range of critical perspectives and an excellent selection of extracts from cases and academic commentaries, providing students with the detailed knowledge and analytical tools required to engage fully with this fascinating subject.

Stone, Christopher D., Should Trees Have Standing? Law, Morality and the Environment 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £13.99, ISBN: 9780199736072

Originally published in 1972, Should Trees Have Standing? was a rallying point for the then burgeoning environmental movement, launching a worldwide debate on the basic nature of legal rights that reached the U.S. Supreme Court. Now, in the 35th anniversary edition of this remarkably influential book, Christopher D. Stone updates his original thesis and explores the impact his ideas have had on the courts, the academy, and society as a whole. At the heart of the book is an eminently sensible, legally sound, and compelling argument that the environment should be granted legal rights. For this new 3rd edition,

Stone explores a variety of recent cases and current events--and related topics such as climate change and protecting the oceans--providing a thoughtful survey of the past and an insightful glimpse at the future of the environmental movement.

The Rt Hon Lord Justice Thorpe; Faggionato, Marina, Mental Health and Family Law, Family Law, A4 Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9781846612114

Mental Health and Family Law is the result of the 2009 Interdisciplinary Conference held at Dartington Hall. The Conference assembled a uniquely qualified group of contributors, drawn from the many professions involved in the work of the family justice system. This book brings together their papers and provides a detailed examination of the latest theory and practice.

Vossestein, Gert-Jan, Modernization of European Company Law and Corporate Governance: Some Considerations on Its Legal Limits, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £92.00, ISBN: 9789041125927

This new book offers a substantial framework for examining the competence or powers of the EC in the field of company law, and the requirements for the lawful exercise of these powers (the principle of subsidiarity and the observance of Article 43 EC in particular). In order to provide a clear understanding of the practical relevance of this framework, the author tests the provisions of specific EC company law instruments for compatibility with the EC Treaty.

Watt, Gary, Trusts and Equity 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £31.99, ISBN: 9780199573172

Trusts and Equity provides a detailed and conceptual analysis of an area of law that students sometimes find difficult. Watt concentrates on those areas of the subject that are most relevant in the contemporary arena, such as the commercial context. The author utilises his expertise in teaching, writing and researching to enliven the text with helpful analogies and memorable references to extra-legal sources such as history, literature and film.

Williams, David, Taxation (International and Other Provisions) Act 2010 Handbook, CCH Editions, Paperback, £64.95, ISBN: 9781847982995

CCH's Taxation (International and Other Provisions) Act 2010 Handbook has been designed to help tax advisers adjust to the new regime by providing clear overview commentary written by a leading expert and full annotations to the Act provided by CCH's team of legislation experts.

Yannaca-Small, Katia, Arbitration Under International Investment Agreements: A Guide to the Key Issues, Oxford University Press USA, Hardback, £135.00, ISBN: 9780195340693

This book describes the process of investor-state arbitration in all of its phases, and provides the reader with comprehensive insight into investor-state arbitration. It includes contributions from many of the leading experts in the field, from private practitioners and academics to government and NGO officials. In this way, the book differs from other books on this topic because it includes contributions from all actors involved, providing more credibility in an area in which one of the main criticisms is bias against governments. This book provides pragmatic and reliable analysis of all aspects of this evolving topic.

Yusuf, Hakeem O., Transitional Justice, Judicial

Accountability and the Rule of Law, Routledge, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780415575355

Transitional Justice, Judicial Accountability and the Rule of Law addresses the importance of judicial accountability in transitional justice processes. Hakeem O. Yusuf argues that the purview of transitional justice mechanisms should, as a matter of policy, be extended to scrutiny of the judicial role in the past. Through a critical comparative approach that cuts through the transitioning experiences of post-authoritarian and post-conflict polities in Latin America, Asia, Europe and Africa, the book focuses specifically on Nigeria. It demonstrates that public accountability of the judiciary through the mechanism of a truth-seeking process is a necessary component in securing comprehensive accountability for the judicial role in the past. Transitional Justice, Judicial Accountability and the Rule of Law further shows that an across-the-board transformation of state institutions - an important aspiration of transitional processes - is virtually impossible without incorporating the third branch of government, the judiciary, into the accountability process.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Fisher and Lightwood's Law of Mortgage 13th edition

Edited by Wayne Clark, Falcon Chambers

LexisNexis Butterworths, Hardcover, ISBN 9781405748070, £269.00, due August 2010

The Thirteenth edition of this leading text on the law of mortgages gives the practitioner a detailed and significant insight into this area. The book is fully updated to cover all pertinent topics from transferring mortgages to a mortgagee's remedies. The authors have set all of this in the context of the changing climate of financial law. New to the 13th Edition: latest case law on the interpretation of mortgage instruments, including Close Asset Finance Ltd v Derek Allan Taylor, Dutton v Davis and Brighton & Hove City Council v Peter Audus; rewriting and restructuring of the section on mortgagee's remedies, incorporating the steady flow of new case law together with discussion of the new practice direction on mortgage possession claims and recent procedural changes in the CPR; HSBC Bank plc v Dyche on overreaching beneficial interests;

revised chapter on the application of the consumer credit legislation, to take account of the Consumer Credit Act 2006, including the new unfair relationships' regime; important decision of Barclays Bank v Guy on rectification of the register to remove a charge; significant rewrite of the material on charging orders, which arises frequently in practice, taking into account Yorkshire Bank Finance Ltd v Mulhall, Royal Oak Property Co Ltd v Iktilat, Close Invoice Finance Ltd v Pile, Forrester Ketley & Co v Brent & Palette and many more; and Scottish & Newcastle plc v Lancashire Mortgage Corporation Ltd on loss of priority by estoppels.

Concise International Arbitration

Edited by Loukas A. Mistelis
Kluwer Law International, Hardcover, ISBN 9789041126092, £120.00, due June 2010

Although the market for information on international arbitration is growing increasingly competitive, until now there has been a singular lack of a short, direct guide of manageable size that focuses on answering the essential questions that inevitably arise. The reality of international arbitration practice is that practitioners often work in an array of jurisdictions, under differing rules and different conventions. Therefore, rather than focusing on the rules of a particular institution, a particular country, or a particular convention, the article-by-article commentary in Concise International Arbitration offers the reader a swift understanding of all provisions of the leading arbitration instruments. Concise International Arbitration is part of Kluwer Law International's 'Concise' series. These publications have proven enormously valuable to busy practitioners who require a succinct, accessible and authoritative commentary on the most commonly-used instruments, unencumbered by dense legal argument. Each book in the series breaks down the relevant texts by article and by each paragraph of the article, followed by one or more notes. The intention is to give the reader a rapid appreciation of the meaning and effect of each provision and to point in the right direction should further information (e.g., case law) be needed.

In this book, key practitioners offer clear, to-the-point commentary on the following arbitral instruments; New York Convention; ICSID Convention; UNCITRAL Rules; ICSID Rules; ICC Rules; LCIA Rules; AAA-ICDR Rules; CIETAC Rules; UNCITRAL Model Law; Chinese Arbitration Law 1994; English Arbitration Act 1996; French Code of Civil Procedure 1976; and Swiss Private International Law Act 1989. As a reliable, quick-reference tool in situations where the reader is not closely familiar with, or needs to be reminded of the effect of a particular legal provision and how it relates to other provisions, Concise International Arbitration is unmatched. It will be greatly appreciated by courts, arbitrators, counsel to arbitration, attorneys, in-house lawyers, arbitration institutions, and academics.

The New Tribunals Handbook

by Richard Gordon QC, Sarah Love & Richard Blakeley
Bloomsbury Professional, Softcover, ISBN 9781847665355, £75.00, due July 2010

Covering the new Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007, this brand new title, aimed at practitioners and the Tribunals themselves, is both a reference tool and an on-the-spot, in-court source of procedural rules and guidance for advocates, judges and other Tribunal members and users. The Handbook is arranged in an encyclopaedic fashion with entries covering the rules and procedure specific to each of the Chambers of the First-Tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal and entries that apply across the Tribunals system, including those covering the rules relating to costs, decisions, hearings, rights to appeal and judicial review.

Collective Management of Copyright and Related Rights 2nd edition

Edited by Daniel Gervais
Kluwer Law International, Hardcover, ISBN 9789041127242, £152.00, due July 2010

This book provides a description of the organizations that provide collective management services and gives suggestions on how collective management can be made more efficient in the Internet age. It covers the effect of WIPO Copyright Treaties and the TRIPS Agreement, and discusses the emerging intersection of copyright management and human rights. Recent developments at the European Union level are also covered, and the author provides particular analysis of the situation in various countries, including France, Germany, the UK and Ireland, the Nordic countries, Australia, Canada, and Japan, as well as general discussions relating to Asia and Latin America.

Company Law Handbook 2nd edition

by Stephen Griffin
Law Society Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781853288180, £69.95, due June 2010

This detailed and comprehensive handbook provides a concise statement of the new law on companies combined with practical guidance. Written in a clear and accessible style, the Company Law Handbook, 2nd Edition includes a new appendix, incorporating a copy of the newly revised standard articles prescribed for a private company limited by shares. The updated edition includes case law under the Companies Act 2006; new model articles of association; topics of current interest such as share capital and minority shareholder actions; and extensively updated sections on accounting and taxation. Stephen Griffin is a professor of law at the University of Wolverhampton. The chapters on accounting and taxation are written by David Southern, a barrister at Temple Tax Chambers.

Land Licences

by John Sharples, Softcover + CD, ISBN 9781846610981, £95.00, due July 2010.

Land licences for the use and occupation of land cut across many areas of property and business practice, including such diverse activities such as mineral extraction, franchises, licences to build, grasskeepers, and residential and social housing. However, the rules surrounding their drafting are complex and the outcome of drafting can be unpredictable. Land Licences is the only work to deal exclusively with licences relating to the use and occupation of land and will seek to answer many of the key questions relevant to the drafting and granting of proprietary licences, including: What is the true nature of the rights granted? What rights does the licensee have against third parties?

What contractual or statutory restrictions are there on the licensor's ability to increase fees?

When and in what circumstances can the licence be assigned? How can the licence be terminated?

What rights/obligations are implied into proprietary licences? The tax consequences of licences?

A CD-ROM will accompany the book and will contain draft notices and pleadings for use and adaptation.

Blackstone's Guide to the Equality Act 2010

Edited by John Wadham, David Ruebain, Anthony Robinson, and Susie Uppal
Oxford University Press, Softcover, ISBN 9780199576104, £44.95, due August 2010

The most significant piece of discrimination legislation in recent years, the new Equality Act repeals a number of the major pieces of discrimination legislation. It imposes a new socio-economic duty on public authorities to consider the desirability of exercising their functions in a way designed to reduce the inequalities of outcome resulting from socio-economic disadvantage. It defines nine protected characteristics: age, disability, combined grounds, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, and sexual orientation, and includes protection against discrimination in the provision of services, premises, work and education. This new Blackstone's Guide, written by expert authors from the Equality and Human Rights Commission and Cloisters Chambers, combines the full text of the Act with an expert narrative. It seeks to explain the scope and impact of the Act, including the civil liberties implications, and to bring practitioners up-to-date. Presented in a straightforward and logical layout, it enables ease of use as a reference source.

Equality Act 2010: A Guide to the New Law

by Michael Duggan
Law Society Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781853287596, £49.95, due August 2010

This invaluable legislation guide offers timely coverage of a new Act that will transform the landscape of equality and discrimination law. Written by a team of leading barristers from Littleton Chambers, this comprehensive book examines the Act's provisions including new provisions on age and disability discrimination; strengthening of the powers of employment tribunals; a new integrated Equality Duty on public bodies; and the protection of people from dual discrimination, i.e. direct discrimination because of a combination of two protected characteristics.

Equality and Discrimination: The New Law

by Dr Brian Doyle, Softcover, ISBN 9781846612015, £50.00, due July 2010

The domestic law concerning discrimination is currently contained in five separate Acts and four sets of principal regulations, reflecting no less than six main EU Directives. The Equality Act 2010 will harmonise the law relating to equality and discrimination, and will replace all existing anti-discrimination law once in force. The Act contains a number of provisions to support progress on equality, such as creating new rights to claim equal pay as a form of direct sex or dual discrimination where there is no identifiable male comparator; extending the permitted use of positive action to all protected characteristics, and to recruitment and promotion; requiring private and voluntary sector employers of 250+ employees to publish information about gender-based pay differences; and rendering it unlawful to prohibit colleagues from talking about terms of employment with a view to checking whether there is prohibited discrimination. Equality and Discrimination: The New Law provides a thorough and practical analysis of the new Act, and places it in the context of the old law and suggests how the new law is likely to work in practice. It will be essential reading for all lawyers and professional advisers dealing with employment and discrimination matters, as well as central and local government departments; schools, colleges and universities and their users; private clubs and other associations; and transport providers. The full text of the Act is reproduced in full.

A Practical Approach to Civil Procedure 13th edition

by Stuart Sime

Oxford University Press, Softcover, ISBN 9780199589739, £37.99, due July 2010

Trusted by generations of students and litigators, A Practical Approach to Civil Procedure is the perfect tool to guide you through the maze of procedural requirements employed in the civil courts. Written by an expert in the field, the book provides a wide-ranging and detailed overview of the key statutory provisions, rules, practice directions and case law which govern the various stages of a civil litigation claim making it essential reading for students and newly qualified litigators alike. Offering highly practical guidance throughout, the book charts the progress of a typical civil litigation claim ensuring that the reader is equipped with a thorough understanding of the key principles and procedures which underpin a civil claim from funding litigation and issuing and serving proceedings, through to trial, enforcement and appeal. Full coverage of alternative dispute resolution is also included. Relevant sample documentation is featured throughout and introduces the reader to the forms and documents which will be encountered in practice while key point summaries, featured at the end of chapters, highlight the essential points covered and ensure that the reader is aware of the necessary procedural rules which govern a particular topic. Updated annually, this thirteenth edition has been fully revised in light of the latest statutory and case law developments in the area.

LEGAL RESEARCH: A Practitioner's Handbook

Peter Clinch with contributions by James Mullan

Price:	£39
ISBN:	9780854900640
Extent:	450 pp
Size:	246 x 189mm
Binding:	Hardback

This comprehensive reference is specifically aimed at busy practitioners (solicitors, barristers and professional support lawyers), particularly those who do not have the benefit of access to a law librarian or information officer. Legal Research: A Practitioner's Handbook provides practical advice on every aspect of effective legal research: problem analysis, selecting and finding the best sources, and presenting results effectively.

Part A covers problem identification and analysis, followed by advice on how to select the best sources and formats (paper or electronic) for research. Part B deals with the information most frequently sought by practitioners, listing sources with analytical comments and, for a selection of the most complex, 'how to use' instructions developed to a standard template. Jurisdictional coverage includes England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland and the European Union, with the addition of information on key sources in European human rights and international law. Part C details sources on how to make the presentation of the results of legal research more effective.

Peter Clinch is Senior Subject Librarian for Law at Cardiff University and has trained law students, practising solicitors and law librarians in legal research skills. He devised and runs the award-winning Cardiff Index to Legal Abbreviations.

James Mullan is Knowledge Management Systems Manager for Field Fisher Waterhouse LLP. Previously he was an Information Officer at CMS Cameron McKenna LLP. He is a member of the British & Irish Association of Law Librarians (BIALL) council.

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE
IN THE COUNTY COURT (5ed)
A Practical Guide to Mediation and Litigation

Patricia Pearl and Andrew Goodman

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854900527
Extent: 309pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Paperback

Legal professionals rarely receive any formal training or guidance on how to run a small claims case in the county court, while litigants in person often have to conduct such cases without legal representation. A lack of understanding of the rules frequently leads to confusion and mistakes, which in turn adds to expense and causes delay. The fifth edition of this popular title (formerly entitled Small Claims Procedure: A Practical Guide) will prove invaluable for busy practitioners and litigants in person alike, equipping them with the latest know-how on avoiding errors and making the most of the procedures that are available.

The mediation section of the book has special prominence in this edition. Litigants using the small claims track can now agree to have their cases diverted to a mediation service run by the Courts service and at no additional charge. The system has been in operation now for over a year and has proved popular with court users, especially litigants in person. This book sets out the scheme in detail together with practical tips on how to make the best use of this new service.

Updating material in this edition has been significant; of particular importance are the clarified rules on the date upon which court proceedings are served and the material which must be included in letters before action and other pre-action steps. Finally, the book has been made even more user friendly by improved cross-referencing, handy tables and an extensive glossary.

CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS
A Comparative Study

Andrew Harding & Peter Leyland

Price: £19.95
ISBN: 9780854900633
Extent: 384 pp
Size: 152 x 229 mm
Binding: Paperback

This book contains an outstanding set of essays on constitutional courts. In many nations constitutional justice can be identified as a central feature of contemporary constitutionalism. Moreover, viewed from a comparative global perspective it is clear that constitutional justice as well as providing a special kind of dispute resolution, also has been turned to as a means of safeguarding conditions of liberal democracy. What characteristics must such a court possess to undertake the tasks that confront them? These contributions by providing an analysis of features such as constitutional context, jurisdictional scope, organisational features and interpretative techniques to give a selective snapshot of the legal characteristics and the operation of constitutional courts across the world.

The chapters by a team of leading international scholars include a general introduction and then focus on: Austria, Central and Eastern Europe, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, Spain, Turkey, Egypt, Francophone Africa, South Africa, Latin America, East Asia, Indonesia and Thailand.

Andrew Harding is Director of the Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives and Chair of Asia-Pacific Relations at the University of Victoria, Canada.

Peter Leyland is Professor of Public Law at London Metropolitan University. Both have published extensively in the field of comparative public law and they are joint editors of the series: ‘Constitutional Systems of the World’.

MIXED LEGAL SYSTEMS AT NEW FRONTIERS

Esin Özücü

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900701
Extent: 338pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

The aim of this volume is to provide the reader with original views on and insight into mixed legal systems in general, and some mixed legal systems and ongoing mixes in particular. The hope is that the analyses to be found in the eleven contributions will be helpful for scholars, students and practitioners who have a general interest in comparative law and a special interest in mixed legal systems, and provide inspiration to pursue further inquiries.

The contributions are a selection of papers presented at the 2007 Second World Congress of the World Society of Mixed Jurisdiction Jurists, ‘The Boundaries of Unity: Mixed Systems in Action’. As can be gleaned from the title of the Congress, the emphasis has shifted from the closed family of ‘mixed jurisdictions’ towards a wider embrace, considering ‘mixed systems’, in addition to the classical ‘mixed jurisdictions’. Following the introduction, the first two pieces inform the reader of the multiplicity of approaches to mixed legal systems and widen the horizon, offering expansion, though retaining exclusivity. Then follow chapters throwing new light on Commonwealth Caribbean, United States Novojo law, Turkey, South Africa, Sri Lanka, England and Ireland, the European Union, and Public International Law and International Trade Law; all showing that we are entering an era of legal studies involving looking at all legal systems anew.

BUILDING THE CIVILIZATION OF ARBITRATION

Thomas E Carbonneau and Angelica M Sinopole

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900688
Extent: 390pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

This book brings together a group of distinguished academics and practitioners and codifies their discussion of cutting-edge topics in the contemporary law of arbitration. A number of the contributors are members of the American Law Institute’s drafting committee on the Restatement of the Law of International Arbitration, a document likely to have a significant impact on the development and evolution of law in the area. The subject matter of the chapters variously accesses the development of investment arbitration, the difficulties raised by adhesionary arbitration, the problems associated with the State regulation of the arbitral process, the role of courts in acclimatizing the legal system to arbitration, the continued power of contracting parties in establishing and operating arbitrations, and the significance of recent U.S. Supreme Court rulings. A number of the authors have substantial practical experience in the process; all are well-known and regarded in the field.

Originally published as a symposium issue of the Penn State Law Review, the volume is intended to provide meaningful insights and useful guidance to students and practitioners of the process alike. The perspective adopted in the considerations is both national and international. The Dean of Penn State Law, Philip J. McConaughay, himself an authority on arbitration, provided invaluable support for the symposium and book project.

MEDICAL LAW PRECEDENTS FOR LAWYERS

Charles Foster

Price: £79
ISBN: 9780854900374
Extent: 416 pp
Size: 246 x 189mm
Binding: Hardback

Written by eminent practitioners in their respective fields, Medical Law Precedents for Lawyers provides a comprehensive collection of fully annotated precedents. It is designed to be a procedural one-stop-shop for all lawyers, whether specialists or otherwise, conducting litigation in any area of medical law from clinical negligence to public law.

Each section of the book contains precedents – including draft letters, checklists, pleadings, court orders etc – which are designed to be easily adaptable to whatever factual situation the user faces. It is not assumed that the user will be familiar with the legal or procedural reasons for doing things in the way suggested by the precedent, and accordingly each precedent is annotated in detail. These annotations, which are inserted by way of footnote, mean that the book is a complete and very practical guide to most of the relevant procedural law and many important aspects of substantive law. It will be invaluable to any busy practitioner asked for advice on clinical negligence, inquests, consent to treatment, withdrawal of treatment, clinical confidentiality, complaining about a healthcare professional, disciplinary and regulatory law in the medical sphere, public law challenges to the decisions of healthcare bodies and – (of increasing importance) – mental capacity issues.

Charles Foster (editor) is a barrister at Outer Temple Chambers, specialising in medical law. He has written, edited or contributed to over thirty books, many of them concerned with medical law, and is a regular speaker at medico-legal conferences.

Contributors: Susan Bartfield, Lester Morrill Solicitors; Jamie Carpenter, Hailsham Chambers; Cara Guthrie, Outer Temple Chambers; Nick Peacock, Hailsham Chambers; Susan Freeborn, Outer Temple Chambers; Alan Jenkins, Outer Temple Chambers; Fiona Borrill, Lester Morrill Solicitors; Andrew Allen, Outer Temple Chambers.

CORPORATE INSOLVENCY PRACTICE
Litigation, Procedure and Precedents

Professor Mark Watson-Gandy

Price: £79
ISBN: 9780854900466
Extent: 389pp
Size: 246 x 189mm
Binding: Hardback

An ideal starting point for all practitioners, whether solicitors or barristers, Corporate Insolvency Practice is the only comprehensive easy to follow ‘how to do it’ guide for all the most common court applications in corporate insolvency.

Covering areas as diverse as winding up petitions to administrations to the reuse of company names, this practical book seeks to give the inside track on what the court will expect both in terms of practice and evidence. It provides the busy practitioner with a range of useful precedents and checklists, and sets out the key statutory and practice material for each application.

Fully incorporating the changes implemented by the Companies Act 2006 and the recent amendments to the Insolvency Rules 1986, Corporate Insolvency Practice will prove an invaluable reference for practitioners making insolvency applications in the Companies Court.

Professor Mark Watson-Gandy is a practising barrister at Thirteen Old Square Chambers and a Visiting Professor at the University of Westminster. He is a member of R3 and is an Editor of Butterworths Corporate Law Service. He was recently shortlisted in Credit Today magazine’s Insolvency & Rescue Awards 2009 as “Barrister of the Year”.

THE SNAIL AND THE GINGER BEER
The Story of Donoghue v Stevenson

Matthew Chapman

Price: £14.99
ISBN: 9780854900497
Extent: 200 pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Hardback

On an August evening in 1928 May Donoghue, a shop assistant, entered a café in Paisley. The circumstances of her visit made legal history. A ginger beer was ordered for Mrs Donoghue who famously complained that, to her surprise and shock, a decomposed snail had tumbled from the bottle into her glass. Mrs Donoghue sued for the nervous shock she claimed to have suffered as a result. The question whether she had a case in law against the manufacturer of the ginger beer was argued as far as the House of Lords. It is hard to overstate the importance of the decision in Donoghue v Stevenson. It represents, perhaps, the greatest contribution made by English and Scottish lawyers to the development of the common law.

Donoghue v Stevenson made it clear that, even without a contract between the parties, a duty of care is owed by ‘A’ to take reasonable care to avoid acts or omissions which could reasonably be foreseen as likely to cause injury to his neighbour: ‘B’. This concept, developed by the great jurist Lord Atkin, has become known by the universal shorthand, ‘the neighbour principle’. Who, Lord Atkin asked rhetorically, is ‘in law’ my neighbour? Donoghue v Stevenson provides the answer.

The Snail and the Ginger Beer tells the full story of this remarkable case. It provides vivid biographical sketches of the protagonists and of the great lawyers who were involved in the case. It sets Donoghue v Stevenson in its historical context and re-evaluates the evidence. The roots of the neighbour principle are excavated in the parable of the Good Samaritan and the case law of the United States. The constitutional importance of the case is also dealt with; the blow it struck for a moral approach to the law which departed from a rigid doctrine of precedent. Finally, the book investigates the influence of Donoghue v Stevenson across the common law world: from the USA to the countries of what is now the Commonwealth.

WEIRD CASES
Comic and bizarre cases from courtrooms around the world

Gary Slapper

Price: £9.99
ISBN: 9780854900619
Extent: 160 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

Based on the author's popular Times Online column 'Weird Cases', this book draws on extraordinary cases from many countries, including the UK, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Romania, and China. The result is a highly entertaining read for anyone who enjoys reading about the more bizarre aspects of human life that fetch up in the law courts at the beginning of the 21st century.

Courts have seen judges do things like try to turn off a musical tie playing "We wish you a merry Christmas" while sentencing a defendant to prison, fall fast asleep in the middle of trials, flip a coin to decide a case, demand a foot massage from a clerk, and get sentenced for judicial racketeering. Courts have listened to the defences like that of a bogus dentist caught using DIY tools on his patients, a man who based his defence on being as hapless as Homer Simpson, and a woman who was running a brothel from an office in the criminal courts. Courts have seen a litigant sue for becoming pregnant by a stray sperm in a swimming pool, and a litigant suddenly strip naked before the judges.

The cases featured in Weird Cases are those that truly stand out as odd, even among all the unusual dramas that challenge the courts. The chapters are: Compensation and Punishment, Love and Sex, Food, Drink, and Drugs, Judges, Death and Violence, Pets and Animals, On the Road, Lawyers, and Jurors, Friends, and Neighbours.

Gary Slapper is an established writer in bringing law to a wide audience. He is a columnist with The Times, for which he has written since 1998, and Professor of Law at The Open University. He also acts as a Legal Consultant to BBC drama and documentaries.

SEXUAL OFFENCES HANDBOOK
Law, Practice and Procedure

Felicity Gerry and Catarina Sjölin

Price:	£69
ISBN:	9780854900350
Extent:	630 pp
Size:	246 x 189mm
Binding:	Hardback

The law and procedure relating to sexual offences is notoriously complex. Since the advent of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, the law (both as to the offences and as to sentencing) changes depending on when the offence was committed, the age of the parties involved and the nature of the act committed. This new guide deals with historic and recent sexual offences, providing a step-by-step approach to the relevant law and procedure, including matters arising before and during trials, from the perspectives of both prosecution and the defence. It also provides coverage of proposed amendments and new legislation arising from the Policing and Crime Bill 2008 and the Coroners and Justice Bill 2009.

Written by two practitioners with extensive experience of preparing and presenting sex crime trials, this practical and accessible work will prove an invaluable reference for all practitioners working within this specialised area of criminal law.

Felicity Gerry is a barrister specialising in serious fatal, sexual and violent offences. She is a “Rape Specialist” advocate and is particularly experienced in complex and lengthy trials concerning recent or historic sexual crime. She has contributed to Counsel Magazine and to BBC Radio 4 “Law in Action” and recorded podcasts for CPDCast.com.

Catarina Sjölin is a specialist criminal barrister. She prosecutes and defends in cases involving a wide range of serious violence, abuse of children and sexual assaults including rape. She has contributed to Counsel Magazine and acted as Junior to the Midland Circuit.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

John Bowers QC and Carol Davis

Price: £29
ISBN: 9780854900541
Extent: 255 pp.
Size: 216 x 138mm
Binding: Paperback

This book contains a mass of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format, providing a concise introduction to the law relating to termination of employment. Written by experienced practitioners, Termination of Employment is an invaluable aide-memoire for the busy practitioner, providing practical advice on all stages of an unfair dismissal case, from considering the merits (or demerits) of the claim to presenting the case before an employment tribunal and appealing (or defending an appeal) to the EAT. The text is supported throughout by an array of helpful checklists. Fully up-to-date, the book provides coverage of important developments in the field since the last edition, such as the 2009 ACAS Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures.

John Bowers QC is one of the leading employment barristers in the UK, practising from Littleton Chambers. He has written over fifteen books, and is a frequent contributor to the Law Society Gazette, New Law Journal and Industrial Law Journal. He is a Recorder on the Midland Circuit and a former Chair of the Employment Law Bar Association.

Carol Davis is an employment and commercial law specialist at Littleton Chambers. She has co-authored numerous articles on aspects of employment law and has lectured on a number of topics, including whistle blowing, discrimination law, disciplinary and grievance matters.

Change of Name

CHANGE OF NAME
The Law and Practice (3rd ed.)

Nasreen Pearce

Price:	£29.00
ISBN:	9780854900442
Extent:	120 pp.
Size:	216 x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

There are many reasons why a person may wish to be known by a different name – on marriage breakdown, or to be relieved of an embarrassment, for example. An adult is free to use any name that he or she chooses, provided that the objective is lawful. For many purposes, however, it is wise to have some formal evidence of a change of name, by deed poll or statutory declaration, or by some other procedure. This can usually be done quickly, cheaply and effectively.

The change in the concept and nature of a family unit, which now includes not only single parents and step-parents but also same sex parents and biological and non biological parents, raises complex issues and gives rise to many questions about the names by which children may be registered, how and on what basis a child's name may be changed and the factors which the courts take into account when deciding any dispute relating to a change of a child's name, between the parents or persons having parental responsibility for the child.

Formerly published by Callow Publishing, Change of Name provides a practical and straightforward guide to this sometimes tricky area of law. Fully up-to-date, the third edition deals with the provisions of the Adoption and Children Act 2002, particularly in relation to Special Guardians, the impact of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008 and the Civil Partnership Act 2004 and recent case law, clearly explaining the procedures to be followed. The range of specimen forms and precedents provided by Her Honour Judge Pearce will prove invaluable to the busy practitioner.

Nasreen Pearce is a retired circuit judge, and was formerly a district judge in the Principal Registry of the Family Division. She has written widely on family law and is a contributor to the Family Court Practice.
